UPDATE: Additional Murder Suspect Sought in Shooting Death of 3 year-old Malachi Barnes

Toledo, OH (February 7, 2019): Detectives are searching for a suspect wanted for murder in the shooting death of 3 year-old Malachi Barnes. On January 23, 2019, murder charges were filed on Andre James White, age 20 of Detroit, Michigan, and K'veon Carnell Giles, age 18 of Toledo, Ohio. White is currently in the custody of the Wayne County Sheriff's Office (Michigan) on separate murder charges. Toledo Police and the United States Marshals Service, Northern Ohio Violent Fugitive Task Force are now asking for assistance in locating Giles. If you have information on K'veon Giles' whereabouts, please contact Crime Stoppers at 419-255-1111. Tips resulting in the arrest of Giles may be eligible for a cash reward.

Description: K'veon Carnell Giles
DOB: 10/28/00
B/M, 5'9", 119 lbs., Brown hair, Brown eyes
3540 Willys Parkway Toledo, OH 43612

On November 22, 2018, Anthony Barnes was driving northbound on I-75 near Collingwood with his three young children in the vehicle. As a vehicle drove beside the Barnes family car, multiple shots were fired and Malachi Barnes, age 3, was struck. Malachi later died at Mercy St. Vincent's Hospital. On December 6, 2018, a 17 year old suspect was taken into custody and charged with Complicity to Commit Murder.

Detectives continue to investigate Malachi's murder. Anyone with additional information is urged to call Crime Stoppers at 419-255-1111.
