Area Law Enforcement Promote National Drug Take-Back Day

Toledo, OH (April 22, 2019): The Toledo Police Department, along with the University of Toledo Police Department, in partnership with the Kroger Corporation and the Toledo Family Pharmacy will be participating in the Spring 2019 National Drug Take Back Day on April 27, 2019 from 10:00 AM – 2:00 PM.

A news conference hosted by Lucas County Commissioner Gary Byers and Chief LaGrange of the Waterville Police Department will take place at the Waterville Kroger store (8730 Waterville Swanton Rd, Waterville, OH 43566) on Friday April 26, 2019 at 10:00am. The news conference will feature a collection of law enforcement officers from out Lucas County showing their support for this worthy cause.

As the war on opioids continues to be fought in our community and communities across the nation, National Drug Take-Back Day will stress the importance of these drug take-back days as an initial step in stopping the opiate epidemic by reducing access to unused prescription drugs.

In Toledo, on Saturday April 27, 2019 from 10:00 AM – 2:00 PM, Toledo Police officers will be at numerous Kroger locations throughout the city collecting unwanted or unused narcotics, over-the-counter medications, pet medications, prescriptions, and vitamins.
